

2023 REGIONAL Tax-Delinquent Land Sales

The 2023 auctions of tax-delinquent real estate will be held as regional events. This will allow prospective bidders to attend more counties' auctions by holding them in a central location, creating a more efficient and streamlined process. Some larger counties will remain as single auction events.

All auctions will begin at 10 a.m.

Research parcels prior to the auctions. The COSL does not guarantee the existence, accessibility or usability of any parcel. The full purchase price must be paid at the end of the auction, with the first $100 per parcel paid in cash or certified funds. Failure to pay can result in a permanent ban from purchasing property from the COSL.
